Data Protection Statement for Recruitment Purposes

AMS recognizes its responsibilities with regard to the integrity and security of personal information.

AMS, as well as those companies in which AMS has a direct or indirect shareholding interest (together “the Related Companies”) will collect, use, process and disclose the information you provide through this application for employment to assess your suitability for a vacancy within the business now or in the future. Some of these decisions about your suitability for a role may be made by using a fully automatic assessment process. If you are offered a role with us, we may use information collected during the recruitment process for the purpose of making the offer and to manage your on-going employment with us. AMS may also use your data in an aggregated form to develop market intelligence. Should you provide your sensitive personal information, you consent to the Related Companies using this information.

As part of the assessment of your personal information for a current or future vacancy, you understand that it may be necessary for the Related Companies to disclose and share this, and other information about you, amongst themselves and with your referees (who may process your information in a country other than where you reside), should it be relevant to the roles or regions you have indicated to be interested in. Some overseas countries do not have data protection legislation equivalent to that in force in your country of residence and by submitting your application, you consent to any such transfers.

As part of the Related Companies’ assessment, the accuracy and completeness of the information you have provided in support of your application may be verified. We may contact you periodically to update your personal information so that we can best inform you of opportunities with the Related Companies. If you are offered a role with one of the Related Companies then pre-employment checks will also be undertaken, which may include, but not be limited to, checking your credit history, academic qualifications and employer references, as well as carrying out criminal records checks and address validation, subject always to local law limitations.

You have the right to ask for a copy of the personal information held about you, for which the Related Companies may charge a fee, and the right to ask the Related Companies to correct any inaccuracies in that information, including deletion. You also have the right to withdraw your consent to your personal information being collected. To send a request in relation to any of these rights please submit a request using our rights request form online here. If you would like to know more about your rights or lodge a complaint, please contact our Data Protection Officer at dataprotection@weareAMS.com

AMS is committed to protecting the security of your personal information. We use a variety of security technologies, contractual controls, industry leading standards (such as ISO27001) and procedures to help protect your personal information from unauthorized access, use, or disclosure.

If you are employed by AMS or one of the Related Companies, nothing contained in this statement shall be construed to limit or suspend any consent you may have given previously to AMS or a Related Company concerning the same or any other information.

Please accept these Terms of Use (“Terms”) and continue with the application. If you decline these Terms, it will not be possible to progress your application and your application will be cancelled.

Declaration

I certify that the information which I have provided is accurate and complete and by submitting my application, understand that I agree to AMS and other Related Companies worldwide, collecting, using processing and disclosing my personal information and sensitive personal information as described above. I also certify that I am over 18 years old. Where relevant to the selection criteria for any vacancy, I further agree to update my personal data should my eligibility for that vacancy change.

I understand that any misrepresentation of this material may possibly result in the termination of my application or employment.
